TA 15-17: Introduction of CA Web Publishing Service

ATTENTION: All Department of Technology Customers

ACTION REQUESTED: Information Only

Due DATE: None

Introduction:

The Department of Technology is pleased to announce that the CA Web Publishing Service will soon be available to customers. CA Web Publishing is a web content management system (WCMS) service that will provide the following benefits:

- Provide customers with an enterprise-level WCMS service
- Create and host customer websites utilizing the ca.gov state template
- Automatically format customer websites with the State "look and feel"
- Eliminate the need for webmasters to code template components
- Establish compliance with Government Code, Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973

Full details of the service offering can be viewed in our Service Catalog. We encourage you to consider whether this service would be beneficial to your department.
